

Holy Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the Power of God thrust down into hell, Satan and all the other wicked spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

PRAYER AT THE SENDING OUT OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound.
May those who take the Body of Christ to them
also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts.
Keep us united with them in all their sufferings
so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us. Amen

On The Liturgical Formation of the People of God

The Church: Sacrament of the Body of Christ

14. As Vatican Council II reminded us (cf. Sacrosanctum Concilium, n. 5), citing the scriptures, the 4 Fathers, and the Liturgy — the pillars of authentic Tradition — it was from the side of Christ as He slept the sleep of death upon the cross that there came forth "the wondrous sacrament of the whole Church." [4] The parallel between the first Adam and the new Adam is striking: as from the side of the first Adam, after having cast him into a deep sleep, God draws forth Eve, so also from the side of the new Adam, sleeping the sleep of death on the cross, there is born the new Eve, the Church. The astonishment for us lies in the words that we can imagine the new Adam made his own in gazing at the Church: "Here at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh." (Ge 2:23) For our having believed in His Word and descended into the waters of Baptism, we have become bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh.

15. Without this incorporation there is no possibility of living the fullness of the worship of God. In fact, there is only one act of worship, perfect and pleasing to the Father; namely, the obedience of the Son, the measure of which is his death on the cross. The only possibility of being able to participate in his offering is by becoming "sons in the Son." This is the gift that we have received.
The subject acting in the Liturgy is always and only Christ-Church, the mystical Body of Christ.

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty,
my memory, my understanding,
and my entire will,
All I have and call my own.

You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.

Everything is yours; do with it what you will.
Give me only your love and your grace,
that is enough for me.

RESPONSE TO THE PSALM

Good luck to all.

The second part of my recent holiday, I spent visiting the beautiful city of Krakow in Poland.
All parishioners, especially the sick were remembered at the Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Łagiewniki district of the city; the Sanctuary of St John Paul II and many Churches in the Archdiocese of Krakow.
In addition, all were remembered at the Shrine of the Black Madonna in the Jasna Gora Monastery in Częstochowa.
