

PRAYER AT THE SENDING OUT OF THE EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

Priest: Almighty and loving Father, as we have received your Son in this Holy Eucharist, we ask you to hear our prayer for our brothers and sisters:

All: Give your healing, Lord, to those who are sick and housebound.
May those who take the Body of Christ to them also be a loving sign of our prayers and thoughts.
Keep us united with them in all their sufferings so that we will grow together as one community with the presence of Christ among us.

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost, to fight
and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labour and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will.

EASTER MESSAGE FROM BISHOP TOAL. I extend warm Easter greetings to all in the Diocese of Motherwell, and pray that the Risen Lord may bless you, your families, parishes, schools and communities with his grace and peace.
We pray especially for peace in the world, and for those suffering because of war, terrorism, and persecution. As we progress through the Jubilee Year of Mercy, especially as we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday next weekend, let us continue to reach out to the Lord in our own need for his healing love and forgiveness, and let us strive to show his mercy to others in our words and good deeds. May the Joy of Easter remain with us always,

And finally, Holy Saturday, the day of God's silence. "Jesus, laid in the tomb, shares with all humanity the drama of death. It is a silence that speaks and expresses love as solidarity with those abandoned for ever, to those whom the Son of God reaches by filling the emptiness that only the infinite mercy of the Father can fill. ... On this day, love becomes the wait for life in the resurrection. It is the love that does not doubt, but that hopes in the word of the Lord, so as to become manifest and resplendent on Easter Day".
It is a great mystery of love and mercy that we can be helped to understand by the words of the mystic Julian of Norwich, who described her visions of the Passion of Jesus: "So our good Lord asked me: 'Are you happy I suffered for you?'. I said, 'Yes, good Lord, and I thank you; yes, good Lord, may You be blessed'. So Jesus, our good Lord, said: 'If you are happy, I am too. Having suffered the Passion for you is for me a joy, a happiness, and eternal joy; and if I could suffer more I would'. "This is our Jesus, who to each one of us says: 'If I could suffer more I would'. Pope Francis Wednesday 23rd March

A man was blissfully driving along the highway, when he saw the Easter Bunny hopping across the middle of the road. He swerved to avoid hitting the Bunny, but unfortunately the rabbit jumped in front of his car and was hit. The basket of eggs went flying all over the place. The driver, being a sensitive man as well as an animal lover, pulled over to the side of the road, and got out to see what had become of the Bunny carrying the basket. Much to his dismay, the colourful Bunny was dead. The driver felt guilty and began to cry. A woman driving down the same highway saw the man crying on the side of the road and pulled over. She stepped out of her car and asked the man what was wrong. "I feel terrible," he explained, "I accidentally hit the Easter Bunny and killed it. There may not be an Easter because of me. What should I do?" The woman told the man not to worry. She knew exactly what to do. She went to her car trunk, and pulled out a spray can. She walked over to the limp, dead Bunny, and sprayed the entire contents of the can onto the little furry animal. Miraculously the Easter Bunny came to back life, jumped up, picked up the spilled eggs and candy, waved its paw at the two humans and hopped on down the road. 50 yards away the Easter Bunny stopped, turned around, waved and hopped on down the road another 50 yards, turned, waved, hopped another 50 yards and waved again! The man was astonished. He said to the woman:
"What in heaven's name is in your spray can? What was it that you sprayed on the Easter Bunny?" The woman turned the can around so that the man could read the label. It said:
"Hair spray. Restores life to dead hair. Adds permanent wave."
